

Adolescent Learning & Leadership Institute

ALLI's mission is to empower young minds, educate them on contemporary issues and engage them in leadership opportunities in their community.

New Layout - Same great programming!

- ALLI will consist of (3) Youth Summits - ALLI stands for Adolescent Learning and Leadership Institute. In addition, there will be (4) Home Groups established for those that are interested in expanding their involvement! (See attached)
- A.L.L.I. student participants will be the driving force for peer-to-peer prevention outcomes focused within their own Communities!

Youth Summits vs. Home Groups

- Youth Summits: Meetings held quarterly on local Campuses and will run from 9 am – 1 pm. This is a regional meeting for all participating youth. Summits will feature a Speaker, skills lesson, lunch and activities designed for students to work with peers from different Schools.
- Home Groups: (If you choose to participate) 1-hr meetings will be held monthly, coordinated around advisor's availability. We will meet at your school during designated times (i.e. after-school, lunch periods, study blocks, homeroom, etc...)

What is ALLI?

- ALLI has evolved to adapt to current challenges, while continuing to deliver successful learning outcomes around youth leadership development and substance abuse prevention.

Is transportation provided?

- SERAC has limited funds to help defray the cost of transportation to and from ALLI Youth Summits. Please connect with SERAC to ensure transportation.

What are the benefits of joining the ALLI Program?

- Working alongside students from different schools and backgrounds!
- Leadership skills training and practice!
- Possible community service hours!
- Enhance college applications!

SERAC sponsors this program as a non-profit prevention agency working to unite communities, reduce the impact of substance abuse, and raise awareness of mental health issues.
